

VOLUME XV.

RESTAURANTS.

Walker's Exchange.

OUR RESTAURANT IS NOW
hospitably supplied with all the delicacies of the season, such as small oysters, fresh from New York by American Express, fresh Venison, Pheasant, Woodcock, Quail, and other game,
family and private parties served up in superior style.
P. S. Just received from the South, a large lot of Lard, Butter, and other provisions, all of which will be sold at the lowest market price.
J. WALKER & CO., Proprietors.

CALLOPH RESTAURANT

U. E. BAILEY, Proprietor,
corner Hancock and Green Sts.
THE ABOVE ESTABLISHMENT
is now open, and will be supplied constantly with the most select and choice of the season, and
the public are solicited to give me a trial.
No 22 Third street, bet. Market and Jefferson.

Charles Eden.

No 22 Third street, bet. Market and Jefferson.
IS AGENT FOR J. FARROW'S OLE BRAND POTATOES, which he will sell at the lowest market price.

CHARLES EXCHANGE.

No 22 Third street, bet. Market and Jefferson.
I AM PREPARED TO SUPPLY THE
public with the best of the season, and
the public are solicited to give me a trial.
No 22 Third street, bet. Market and Jefferson.

SLOAN'S

THE NECESSITY FOR WHICH
the public are solicited to give me a trial.
No 22 Third street, bet. Market and Jefferson.

MARBLE HALL

Restaurant and Coffee-House,
FIFTH STREET, OFF CORNER PLACE.
WE WOULD INFORM OUR
friends and the public that we have been opened at the corner of Fifth and Market streets, and are now open at the corner of Fifth and Market streets, and are now open at the corner of Fifth and Market streets.

Baltimore Oyster

IMPORTING HOUSE!
I AM RECEIVING DAILY BY EX-PRESS, from Baltimore, the best of the season, and the public are solicited to give me a trial.
J. WALKER & CO., Proprietors.

Ladies' Oyster Saloon

THE UNDERGROUND BEGS
to inform its friends and the public that it has been opened at the corner of Fifth and Market streets, and is now open at the corner of Fifth and Market streets.

COAL LUMBER.

PITTSBURG COAL AND ALL
other kinds of coal, and the public are
solicited to give me a trial.
J. WALKER & CO., Proprietors.

WM. L. MURPHY KEEPS CONstantly on hand a large supply of the best Pittsburgh Coal, and the public are

solicited to give me a trial.
J. WALKER & CO., Proprietors.

COAL! COAL! COAL!

THE SUBSCRIBER, THANKFUL
for the patronage of his friends, and the public are solicited to give me a
trial.
J. WALKER & CO., Proprietors.

NUT COAL.

WE HAVE A VERY LARGE STOCK
of Nut Coal, and the public are
solicited to give me a trial.
J. WALKER & CO., Proprietors.

SAW-MIL LUMBER

OF ALL KINDS TO ORDER.
THE UNDERSIGNED ARE CONstantly cutting and drying, and the public are solicited to give me a
trial.
J. WALKER & CO., Proprietors.

SAVE YOUR MONEY!

LUMBER! LUMBER!
TO ALL PURCHASERS OF LUMber, the undersigned are solicited to
give me a trial.
J. WALKER & CO., Proprietors.

CASTOR OIL

OF ALL KINDS TO ORDER.
THE UNDERSIGNED ARE CONstantly cutting and drying, and the
public are solicited to give me a
trial.
J. WALKER & CO., Proprietors.

CASTOR OIL

OF ALL KINDS TO ORDER.
THE UNDERSIGNED ARE CONstantly cutting and drying, and the
public are solicited to give me a
trial.
J. WALKER & CO., Proprietors.

CASTOR OIL

OF ALL KINDS TO ORDER.
THE UNDERSIGNED ARE CONstantly cutting and drying, and the
public are solicited to give me a
trial.
J. WALKER & CO., Proprietors.

CASTOR OIL

OF ALL KINDS TO ORDER.
THE UNDERSIGNED ARE CONstantly cutting and drying, and the
public are solicited to give me a
trial.
J. WALKER & CO., Proprietors.

CASTOR OIL

OF ALL KINDS TO ORDER.
THE UNDERSIGNED ARE CONstantly cutting and drying, and the
public are solicited to give me a
trial.
J. WALKER & CO., Proprietors.

CASTOR OIL

OF ALL KINDS TO ORDER.
THE UNDERSIGNED ARE CONstantly cutting and drying, and the
public are solicited to give me a
trial.
J. WALKER & CO., Proprietors.

CASTOR OIL

OF ALL KINDS TO ORDER.
THE UNDERSIGNED ARE CONstantly cutting and drying, and the
public are solicited to give me a
trial.
J. WALKER & CO., Proprietors.

DAILY DEMOCRAT.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY

Harney, Hughes & Co.

READING MATTER ON EVERY PAGE.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 22, 1858.

Democratic Meeting.

The Democratic Association of the Third and Fourth Wards will meet at Red Men's Hall, corner of First and Jefferson streets,
on Thursday evening, 23d inst., at seven o'clock.
A full attendance is desired, as arrangements will be made for the delegates to the eighth of January Convention to go to Frankfort.

RIGHTS OF JANUARY CONVENTION.

An arrangement has been made with the Louisville and Frankfort Railroad Company, to take the delegates to the Democratic Convention at Frankfort, on the 8th of January, for four dollars the round trip; and a train will leave Frankfort on Sunday morning, the 9th,
to bring the delegates back.

THE EDITOR OF THE JOURNAL REJOICES

over the action of his party, in appointing delegates to meet here on the 22d of February, and earnestly recommends J. F. Bell as the candidate of the opposition for the office of Governor. His merits are of a singular sort. He has never been identified with the editor's party. He has, in fact, been opposed to it;
although he has never voted, that we know of,
with the Democratic party. It is the first time that we ever knew a party to consider it a chief merit of their candidate that he never belonged to them; and that, in fact, disapproved of their whole record and conduct. We presume, after this demonstration, that the great American party has gone out of existence, and that we are to have another party built on ruins.

But Bell is not a candidate yet, and we guess

he has no ambition to be one, under the circumstances. The editor of the Journal and his party are in a condition now to carry out one
of their maxims, viz: "That an office should
seek the man; that the man should not seek
the office." The office will have to seek
its men now and hereafter. We had to put it in practice years ago in this Commonwealth, and
it never succeeded well. The office would never find the men; and experience has proved
that office should find men; the latter are
far more successful when they seek the office
than when they are sought. In some circumstances, must seek the men, or for men will be seeking at all;
and that great American party is in the fix
to carry out its policy in this respect, so emphatically expressed at one time. The office must
now seek the men; for men have no temptation
to seek the office. The party will stand up to their professions, no doubt. This they
never did when they had a majority, and men
believed they could find the office by a reasonable hunt. Now, when the office are hard to find, the office must seek the man, and we
have no idea it will find him, however loud the Bell may ring.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

along with it, three sermons he had prepared.

The latter was not what the burglar bargained
for. He, perhaps, did not know it was a clergyman's coat. A member of Congress once felt a pickpocket's hand, and seized it before the rogue had time to withdraw it. The Congressman took the fellow aside, and said to him: "You rascal, feel in my pockets, and see that you made a mistake. I have nothing that would do you any good; I am a member of Congress." The pickpocket, who did not know it was a member of Congress, felt in his pockets and would have known better than to expect anything from his pockets. The honorable gentleman, who was a great was himself, was so amused that he told the rascal a quarter to get a drink, and told him to begone; he had no use for him.

WE foretold, when Sam was rampant,

that he would not be long before men would be getting certificates to prove that they never belonged to the Know-Nothing party. The time has come already. We saw that J. F. Bell is put forward by the party as the most eligible candidate for the party, on the ground that he never belonged to the order.

The organ asserts this; but certificates to the fact would help the cause, lest some suspicious should remain on the subject. The rest of the brethren will, no doubt, need certificates, and the demand is likely to be large. A friend informs us that he will open an office on Jefferson street, where he will take affidavits for the brethren at a quarter apiece. He thinks that is reasonable, as it is just a cost a quarter to get into the order.

A quarter for a certificate that he never got into it, will make the whole expense only a half dollar. That is cheap to get out of a very bad scrape.

IT is said that a meeting of various members of the factions into which the New York Democracy is divided has taken place at Washington, expecting that, by the aid of the President, something can be done for peace. New York politics are beyond the ken of the wisest;

and, if any President can keep the factions in order here, he need not despair of accomplishing any impossible exploit.

THE reader will see in the dispatches

good news from the Southern Pacific Railroad meeting at New Orleans. There is no longer a doubt of the success of the stockholders in relieving the enterprise from embarrassment, and recovering possession of the road. Those who have invested in stock may breathe easier.

But Bell is not a candidate yet, and we guess

he has no ambition to be one, under the circumstances. The editor of the Journal and his
party are in a condition now to carry out one
of their maxims, viz: "That an office should
seek the man; that the man should not seek
the office." The office will have to seek
its men now and hereafter. We had to put it
in practice years ago in this Commonwealth, and
it never succeeded well. The office would
never find the men; and experience has proved
that office should find men; the latter are
far more successful when they seek the office
than when they are sought. In some circumstances, must seek the men, or for men will be seeking at all;
and that great American party is in the fix
to carry out its policy in this respect, so emphatically expressed at one time. The office must
now seek the men; for men have no temptation
to seek the office. The party will stand up
to their professions, no doubt. This they
never did when they had a majority, and men
believed they could find the office by a reasonable hunt. Now, when the office are hard to find, the office must seek the man, and we
have no idea it will find him, however loud the Bell may ring.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

WE notice, in our Democratic exchanges,

earnest exhortations to union and harmony and
conciliation—exhortations to stick to organiza-
tion, as the panacea in the present emergency.
This is all very well; but these same authori-
ties are equally urgent in sustaining all the
party to the exclusion of the other. It is in
fact, a party to the exclusion of the other. It
is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.
It is in fact, a party to the exclusion of the other.

[illegible]

STEINHAU LIGHTEN & CO

IMPORTERS OF AND WHOLESALE DEALERS IN WATCHES AND JEWELRY
CORNER FIFTH AND MAIN STS., OVER LICHTEN, LOWENTHAL & Co.
LOUISVILLE, KY.

HORACE GOOCH,
(LATE OF MC CREIGHT, ENDERS & GOOCH), CARRIAGE MANUFACTURER,
CORNER OF JEFFERSON AND THIRD STREET

AND COOLING. I am prepared to make CARRIAGES of every description of the best
 All kinds of REPAIRING entrusted to me will be promptly and substantially done.
 Found by the public generally to be well qualified to give me the best of business, by constant attention, and by a thorough knowledge of my business, to retain all who ever once become my customers. (each time) HORACE GOSWELL, Y. HARBOR.

AGES. KENTUCKY CHAIR FACTORY,
OSCAR HARG,
 WHOLESALE DEALERS IN AND MANUFACTURERS OF
 Wood and Case-Seat Rims and Plain-Back Chairs
 Rockers, and Arm Chairs,
 OF ALL PATTERNS and of EVERY STYLE, WHICH WE WILL SELL TO THE TRADE AT THE LOWEST WHOLsale prices. Our facilities are such, having a Steam Sled Mill and Car Factory, that we can make our work—which is made of the best timber and stock, under our own supervision—a shade cheaper than any other establishment. We are also prepared to make any kind of furniture, of any quality. We took the PREMIUM at the Fair of the Kentucky Mechanics Institute, Louisville, 1883.

ONLY NEW GOODS,
PERFUMERIES,
AND DILET ARTICLES,
INDIA-RUBBER GOODS,
ANCY CHINA AND BOHEMIAN
GLASSWARE,
Toilet Cases,
by Horses, Wheelbarrows,
AND CABS.
—ALSO—
MANUFACTURER OF ALL KINDS OF WILLOW WARE,
AND
Apr Skirts and Baskets,
Our assortment of Goods is very large.
J. SUES,
70 Fourth Street,

CLARKE & SPURRIER,
Sign Painters and Brand Cutters
NO. 44 THIRD STREET
(OPPOSITE THE OLD POST-OFFICE, UP STAIRS).
ORDERS from a distance attended to.

MUSSELMAN & SON,
TOBACCO MANUFACTURERS
SECOND STREET, BETWEEN MAIN AND WATER,
Louisville, Ky.,

[illegible]

PREMIUM PUMP
GEO. B. SLOAT & CO.'S
Sewing Machines
WON THE FIRST PREMIUM
OF THE KENTUCKY MECHANICS
INSTITUTE, and at every State and County Fair where there has been a Premium given. It is the best.
It is now secured by over TWENTY DIFFERENT PATENTS, being so far back as 1840. It is the best Sewing Machine in this country, and is purchased by well-to-do families, and is entirely free of all rust, and after continued use.

BEST SEWING MACHINE THE MARKET AFFORDS!

See it! Please call and examine for yourselves, at 607 Mainville Temple.
JAMES H. BLAKE, Agent.

QUAKER CITY
Thread, Double Lock, Tight Stitch
Sewing Machine!
See it before you sell in the WEST!
Price—$20 and $45!
THIS IS NO CHEAP, CHAIN, SINGLE-
thread, rippling stitch machine, but makes in one stroke a double lock, tight stitching,
just as if made by hand.

GEO. W. HITE,
ATTORNEY AT LAW
LOUISVILLE, KY.
Office on Collection Street, between Fifth and Sixth—COURT HOUSE MADE IN A MINUTE
part of the State, through lavinate action
for the purpose.

THOMAS J. MARTIN
GENERAL COMMISSIONER
of Revenue, Merchant, and dealer in GRAND SEEDS—Second street, between 5th and 6th, Louisville, Ky.
For further particulars apply directly to said agent.

H. SPARKE & CO.
GROCERS AND COMMISSION MERCHANTS
WALL STREET,
NEW YORK.
Are preparing to make liberal advances—
PORK, BACON, LARD, JEANS, LINSEY, GINGER, ROPE, &c.

Between Fourth and Fifth Streets,
P. O. BOX 12, LOSKETT,
Ky. 1209. Louisville, Ky.

NAUGHTAN & CO.,
DEALERS IN
Sewing Machines!
5 MARION TERRACE, FOURTH STREET,
Louisville, Ky.

ETTLETON & RAYMOND'S PAT-ENT, or Empire Family Sewing Machine—WHEELS' PATENT—the most perfect double Machine ever made. It is the only Family one that will make every style of Clothing, Millinery, Saddlery, and all other work. It is the only one that any man, or any other require a month in their work.
It is the only one that will make any work.
It is the only one that will make any work.
It is the only one that will make any work.

Agents wanted throughout the States. cc30

Prover & Baker's

COLEMAN, BRITTON & WITTE
Cotton Factors and Commission Merchants
NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA.

GEORGE PATTON..... W. H. C. DRYDEN
PATTON & DRYDEN
COMMISSION MERCHANTS, AND F
AND PRODUCE DEALERS.
No. 33 Third Street, bet. Main and the River,
Louisville, Ky.

PERSONAL ATTENTION GIVEN
to the sale of Hay, Grain, Dried Fruit, Furs, Eggs, Oysters, Apples, Potatoes, Flour, Bacon, &c.
and orders for Groceries, Liquors, and Manufactures filled at a moment's notice.

Liberal Cash Advances will be made

FAMILY
Sewing Machine!!
PRICE FIFTY DOLLARS.

OFFICE:

AT COST FOR CASH
OUR ENTIRE STOCK—$60,000—WORTH OF FINEST AND BEST GOODS, NOTIONS, &c.,—Having determined to close our business on this date, we desire to reduce our present stock of FINEST DOMESTIC DRY GOODS at wholesale and offer wholesale and retail buyers an opportunity of buying a well-selected stock at unusually low prices. Cash payment between Fourth and Ninth streets.

J. S. MORRIS & SONS,
WHOLESALE DRUGGIST
461 Main Street, between Fourth and Fifth streets.
LOUISVILLE, Ky.

H. & I. DEDEM

Fourth Street, bet. Market and Jefferson, LOUISVILLE, Ky.

H. M. BENTLINGER, Agt.

MARY HART-DILLON H. MAPOUTER—No. 872 N. EATBACH

Dart, Mapother & Co.,

LITHOGRAPHING AND FANCY

PRINTING ESTABLISHMENTS, southeast corner Third and Market streets, Louisville, Ky.
209 North Main street, St. Louis, Mo.
160 West Second street, Cincinnati, Ohio.
Circles, Bill of Lading, Show Cards, Steamboat Records, Receipts, Circulars, Envelopes, Labels, Cards, and Portraits, and every description of Litho-graphic work, executed in the highest style.
See our circulars.

A. H. McKay,
ATTORNEY AT LAW.

Jefferson street, between Jackson and Hancock.
J. A. & M. A. McNAY, Real Estate Agents and Collectors. Tel. 100. 1001 1/2

L. EISENMAN,
Wholesale and Retail
dealer in Groceries, Grain, Fruit, and all kinds of country produce, eastwharf corner of Main and Highland streets, Louisville, Ky. sec 10 div

Money Loaned.

ADIES ON GENTLEMEN REquired. LOANS on any security. Discreet, safe, etc., can be accommodated by applying at C. C.
BANKS, 1001 1/2 Jefferson street, between Jackson and Hancock. Business prompt, honorable, and strictly confidential.

NEW FIGS - 400 DRUMS JUST received and for sale by
GEO. W. MORRIS, 60 Thirtieth.

Louisville Manufacturers
WILLIAM RAMBERG
HAS COMMENCED THE MANUFACTURE OF APPLE REFRIGERATORS.
SWEET CIDER MINOR WATTS
HE is using none but the best materials and his
is giving it his closest attention, and is satisfied that his product will be found to be in perfect every day, and of superior quality. Orders, want sent to Sweet Bakery
and Steamship Co. you have a free of charge.

